

TEEN PROGRAMS - GRADES 6 & UP

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2019

Registration is appreciated. Register online through the Teen Services tab at glencovelibrary.org or call the Teen Services desk @ 516-676-2130.

SAT/ACT Practice Test - Saturday, September 7, 1:30pm - 4:45pm

SAT/ACT Practice Test Follow Up - Thursday, September 19, 7pm

Take a combined practice test for the SAT/ACT then attend our follow-up session on Thursday, September 19 and meet with Precision Test Prep leaders to discuss your results and receive feedback and tips for future exams.

Parents are encouraged to attend the review session. Please bring your own calculator.

How to Write an Effective College Application Essay - Tuesday, September 24, 7pm

A 60-minute seminar that explains all the (often surprising) do's and don'ts to make your essays unique and reflect you perfectly. The specific 3-step process will be demonstrated as well as the five golden rules that guarantee a stellar essay.

Q/A time will follow. Bring paper because you'll want to take a lot of notes. Sign up for a 15 minute appointment with the instructor on October 2.

How to Write an Effective College Application Essay Follow Up Wednesday, October 2, 6-8pm

Teens that attend How to Write an Effective College Application Essay on Tuesday, September 24 can bring their finished College Application Essay and receive feedback from instructor Barbara Becker. She will review your essay and help to improve it so that your essay stands out amongst other applicants.

Countdown to College: Step-By-Step Guide to Navigating High School

Without Stress and Maximizing College Acceptance Odds - Thursday, October 24, 7pm

In this 60-minute seminar, learn what courses to take (many Honors vs. regular courses) and a myriad of other invaluable information so you correctly schedule the many important steps leading to acceptance at your first-choice college. This process must start the first day of ninth grade and follow through every year, especially summers, until that acceptance letter arrives in your mailbox. There is an organized chronological schedule that the instructor will clearly spell out. Q/A will follow.

Stress Stinks! - Thursday, September 26, 7pm

This one hour class provides teens with the tools they need to calm their minds and deal with the stressors they encounter daily. After being led in a mindfulness activity, each participant will make and take home their own calming glitter jar.

Teen Advisory Board: Adopt Me Bandanas w/Iron On Phrases - Thursday, October 3, 7pm

Create bandanas with special phrases for dogs to wear at adoption events and in photos! We'll also create "Thank You for Adopting" cards too. This is a perfect program to help promote senior dogs get adopted as well. Earn Community service hours.

Halloween Jug O' Lantern - Thursday, October 10, 7pm

The bewitching hour starts when the sun sets, so make sure you're prepared with some festive lanterns. Get ready for the season with Jug o' Lanterns! Using upcycled materials, add some Halloween spirit by creating your own safe, glowing lanterns to turn your home into a haunted house.

Great Give Back Event: Shelter Pet Donations - Wednesday, October 16, 4:30pm

Volunteers are needed to help at The Great Give Back Day event! This program's mission is to provide a day of opportunities for Library patrons to "Give Back" to their communities. This year, we will be making toys and treats to give to shelter pets. Teens will earn Community service credit hours.

Haunted Graveyard Cakes - Thursday, October 17, 7pm

Decorate a yummy but spooky 6-inch cake made to look like a haunted graveyard.

Halloween Book Buddies - Tuesday, October 29, 4:30pm

Teens and kids make great reading partners! Volunteer to read books to children (Grades K-3) and decorate a pumpkin with your book buddy. Earn Community service credit.

Teen Advisory Board - Thursday, November 7, 7pm

Program to be announced.

