“Smittens” and Scarves

Thursday, November 7, 7pm

Cold weather needs a warm remedy. One way to care for yourself is with the help of warm winter accessories. Choose to make “Smittens” (repurposed sweaters into mittens), or scarves made from the softest, warmest fleece. They are really cool and warm and easy to make! Items will be donated to a local charity.

It’s A Wrap: Holiday Gift Wrapping Event

Tuesday, December 10, 6:30pm

Practice your wrapping skills and volunteer to wrap holiday gifts for your community. All wrapping paper, bows and ribbons will be provided. Limit 3 gifts per patron.

Building Your First Budget

Thursday, November 14, 7pm

A smart budget helps you cover your expenses and still buy some of the things you want. Find out how to make - and maintain - a budget based on your needs. Sponsored by Bethpage Federal Credit Union. Grades 7 & up

Fun With Coding

Thursday, November 21, 7pm

Teens will take a beginner class on coding and learn to code while working on a fun, creative project.

AnySoldier Volunteer Program

Saturday, November 23, 11am

Teens in grades 6 to 12 are invited to organize donations and bring them to the Post Office. Community Service is earned for your assistance.

Ugly Sweater Holiday Party

Thursday, December 5, 7pm

Wear your ugliest holiday sweater and come to party. We will decorate ugly sweater sugar cookies and play some fun ugly sweater party games.

Gingerbread House

Thursday, December 12, 7pm

Enjoy building your very own magical gingerbread house during this fun and festive craft program.
